DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8 and 13-17, drawn to a method of operating a split axis stage in an inspection system, classified in class 073, subclass 865.9.
- II. Claims 9-12, drawn to a split axis stage in an inspection system, classified in class 073, subclass 865.9.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the method does not require modular sections and does not require the sections to be removably connected. Furthermore, the apparatus does not require the inspection to be done on stationary media or to have continuous translation of the media. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Should the applicant election group I then the following additional restriction is required:

IA. Claims 2-8, drawn to a method of operating a split axis stage in an inspection system, classified in class 073, subclass 865.9.

IB. Claims 13-17, drawn to a method characterizing planar, flexible media, classified in class 073, subclass 865.9.

4. Inventions IA and IB are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination does not require characterization during continuous translation, characterization while holding the media stationary, or media height compensation. The subcombination has separate utility such as a method for characterization of media with physical attributes having height compensation. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group IA is not required for Group IB, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Claim 1 is a linking claim between Groups IA and IB and will be examined with the election of either Group IA or Group IB.
